

Conference of Religious Catholic Archives Society

Training Day

Wednesday 31 August 2016

The Conference of Religious and Catholic Archive Society are hosting a training day for Religious Congregations. This forms part of our seminar programme for 2016.

The Catholic Archives Society is a voluntary organisation founded in 1979 to promote the care of the archives of the Roman Catholic Church in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland, so enabling them

- to be used for the efficient administration of the diocese, parish, religious foundation or lay society they concern
- to be available for research and cultural uses

The Society does this by providing information, advice and training opportunities for anyone with responsibility for the identification, cataloguing, care and preservation of these archives.

You will be welcomed by Father John Broadly, Chair of the Catholic Archives Society.

Speakers: Clare Walsh, archives consultant and CAS Council member.

Jonathan Bush, Ushaw College, Durham University Archives, CAS Journal editor.

Alison Day, Douai Abbey Archives.

Judith Smeaton, Chair of the National Strategy for Catholic Archives, CAS Council member.

Father John Broadley, Catholic Archives Society chair.

Venue: Cathedral Centre, 3 Ford Street, Salford, Manchester M3 6DP

Arrival: 10.00 for 10.30 start

Finish: 16.00
