

Publication Guidelines for the Journal

1. Catholic Archives, the Society's journal, is published annually in the spring.
2. Contributions of up to 5,000 words are most generally acceptable.
3. Material should preferably be submitted word processed.
4. Footnotes are acceptable, though not obligatory.
5. The editor reserves the right to edit all copy, including ensuring that all final articles appear in a standard format.
6. Images and diagrams may be included as necessary, but are inevitably restricted by the format.
